

Markstein Consulting's intellectual capital is drawn from its team's diverse experience, which covers a broad spectrum of industries including law, healthcare, finance, retail, technology, non-profit, and the federal sector. The firm's capabilities are enhanced by its dedication to a client-focused approach and results-oriented solutions.

One hundred percent of our team has advanced degrees, and conveys experience working with companies of all sizes – from blue chip pharmaceuticals to solely-owned start-ups.

The scope of our business experience, coupled with our team's educational training and passion for business strategy, affords our clients comprehensive solutions to their management challenges, delivered by an idea-driven, trusted resource.

Danny Markstein, Managing Director

Eileen Jaffe Markstein – Managing Director