

Markstein Consulting provides creative, effective solutions to companies preparing for and experiencing business management challenges. We work to maximize our clients' strengths and transform their relative weaknesses into opportunities.

We offer our clients a balance of strategic counsel and tactical collaboration through onsite support services, project-based engagements, and full service retainers. Our practice areas include:

Corporate Strategy

Operational Effectiveness

Organizational Dynamics

Marketing & Communications